MEDICINAL.

meiodramatic and commonplace beside the peril every woman runs who faces motherhood. Women are strangely self-forgetful. The exaltation of the fact of motherhood blinds them often to its peril. Yet the husband who can bear no tithe of the mother's pain or peril owes it to himself to see that his wife is in that condition of sound health which minimizes the risk both to mother minimizes the risk both to mother and child. Many husbands have expressed their gratitude for Dr. expressed their gratitude for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, because it makes the pain of motherhood practically nothing and reduces the risk to its lowest possible point.

"Five years my wife was in an almost helpless condition, suffering from female weakness," writes J. 8. Everritt, Esq. of Hagerman, Washington Co. Pla. "Last September I decided to have her try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. She took several bottles of the medicine and gave birth to a ten pound son on January 1st. 1899. STEAMER'S BOILER BURSTS. Nine persons dead, half a dezen mor. tally is jured, and several missing, is the result of the explosion of a boiler on the steambost City of Trenton at 2:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the Delaware river.

There were more than three hundred people on the boat at the time of the catastrophe, and she was steaming up the Delaware at top speed. The accident occurred a mile above the House of Correction, which is on Penny Pack oreck. Fire followed the explosior, and when the boat was beached on the Pennsylvania side of the atream she was burning fiercely. Before the flames were extinguished the vessel was burned almost to the water's edge. It seems almost a miracle that any of her passenges toward the Pennsylvania side, and her impetus ran her ashore in about four feet of water. Both sides of the river at the point where the explosion occur-red are lined with boat houses, and men rowed at once to the assistance of those who were struggling in the water. Several persons were picked up and carried to the Jersey and Penusylvania scores, but it seems certain that some must have gone down, as the tide was must have gone down, as the tide was running very strong.

The vessel had caught fire as soon as the boiler exploded, and by the time her bow struck in the flats at Hampton Court the flames eagerly devoured the wreck. Panic seized the passengers, but, strange to say, few jumped into the water until the steamer reached shore.

Men began pushing and struggling with others to get into the boats that had drawn up to the side of the wreck, and would have left many women and children to burn had it not been for the children to burn had it not been for the action of a mounted policeman who rode into the water, and, drawing his revolver, threatened to shoot any man who entered a boat before the women and children got off.

This was effectual and the passengers got off eafely. Meanwhile fire boats were speeding to the scene and they soon put out the flames.

The City of Trenton was a new boat,

The City of Trenton was a new boat, having been launched lees than a year ago from the yards of Nesfie & Levy. She drew only five feet of water. She was 162 feet long, 32 feet beam, and 33 feet guard. She had triple expansion engines and twin screws. The boilers were of locomet ve type and designed to carry a pressure of 175 pounds. She was valued at $40,000 and was fully

A Minister's Good Work.

Nine bodies have been recovered and taken to the morgue. All are badly burned. Thirty-two injured are in the Philadelphia hospital. The boat left Philadelphia at 1:45 yesterday afternoon ten minutes behind schedule time. More than a mile ahead of her steamed the Twilight, of the Delaware rivet Navigation Company. The City of Trenton belonged to the Wilmington S.eamboat Company. The two are rivelef, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and yave him no relief, so disctorged him. Seemboat Company. The two are rivale.

It is the custom of the captains of the vessels of the two companies to race up the river, and yesterday Captain Worrell determined to catch the Twilight. All steam was put on and the little vessel fairly leaped through the water. Whether this had anything to do with the explosion cannot be said, but a member of the crew gave it as his opinion that the steam exhaust pips was too small for the work required of it and the increased pressure drove the steam back and caused the explosion.

The vessel was steaming at a speed to who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so disclarged him. I went more ing. H said his bowels acre in a terrible fix, that they had he had the Chamberlain's Colic, Cholers and Darrhoes Remedy and he said, No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one doer; told him to take another does in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not fied relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

The vessel was steaming at a speed of about sixteen knots and was in midstream about a quarter of a mile behind the Twilight when, without the least indication that anything was wrong, the explosion took place. A passenger who was in the cabin, said:

"I was with my wife and four children, it is to be the said properties of the solid proparation of the sering apart of silk. Then the floor is tearing apart of silk. Then the floor is tearing apart of silk. Then the floor is to be the tearing apart of silk. Then the floor is to be propertied to issant there was a terrific report. The two upper decks were lifted up and I saw the upper one go over the olde."

The explosion threw a number of passenger overboard and carried a way both upper decks. It was the port boiler that exploded, and the starboard foller being intact, the screw continued to revolve and turned the vessel's bow toward the Pennsylvania side, and her to cover the properties of the solid ground for the same and the pennsylvania side, and her to cover the properties of the solid ground for the same and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character.
